Introduction

Every section will have an introduction text explaining what people can find in the section. Just some short intro text and some picture and potentially a video icon which can be started by clicking on it. Please put there text below + the video on the next page

Text:

Welcome to the Coaching section! Here you find a short video explaining a bit more about the specifics of Hockey ID coaching. You will also find here 3 levels of coaching education. Level 1 is a coaching course which can be hold on a club or national level. It's self explanatory so give it a try. Level 2 and Level 3 courses are coordinated via the FIH so in case of interest, check the courses calendar in the FIH academy to find out when the next course will be held or contact info@fih.ch for more information. For these courses you will find 2 e-learnings here which are pre-course material for Level 2 and 3 but feel free to give the e-learning a go in case you're interested to upgrade your coaching skills and test your Hockey ID coaching knowledge!

Video

Please add the following video next to the intro text so people see the text, a picture and the video.

E-learning Hockey ID Coach Basics

Safety

Ensuring a safe environment is key for successful coaching. As a coach you have to create a physical and mental safe environment for your players. When it comes to physical safety ensure that the players use their protective gear during trainings and games and explain parents and staff about the importance. Show the players how to use their sticks correctly (keep yr sticks low to the ground). We recommend you have 1 trainer for 4 players to be able to react to certain situations fast. etc

Now let's get your certificate

To get your certificate next you will find some 5 scenarios which can happen when you are coaching. All answers are possible but we would like you to choose the one which you believe is best. These situations are described by experienced Hockey ID coaches and staff so let's see how you will handle this ;-)

E-learning Hockey ID Coach Basics

Scenario #1 : The runaway

You are explaining an exercise during a training and Tomas, a new player, walks away from the group and goes to a corner of the pitch. Your assistant coach Eva goes after him to get him back but you see she has difficulties to convince Tomas to re-connect. The parents are standing behind the fence, looking, but they do not seem to be getting into action. Eva comes back to the group. You explained the group the exercise and they start their exercises. You do not know Tomas well yet but you feel you need to solve the situation. What would you do?

a	Ask Eva to go to Tomas to give it a second try
b	Talk to Tomas's parents and consult what would be best to do
c	Give Tomas some time for himself as he will reconnect himself
